Header

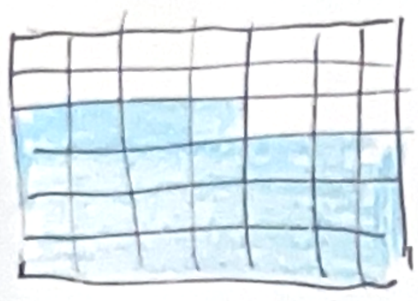

Title: Who cares for Australia's 31.6 Million Pets?

Subtitle: Australia has more pets than people...
All costs are in Australian dollars.

Section 1: A nation of pet lovers

chart #1 = waffle chart

Pets live in nearly 75% of Australian homes.

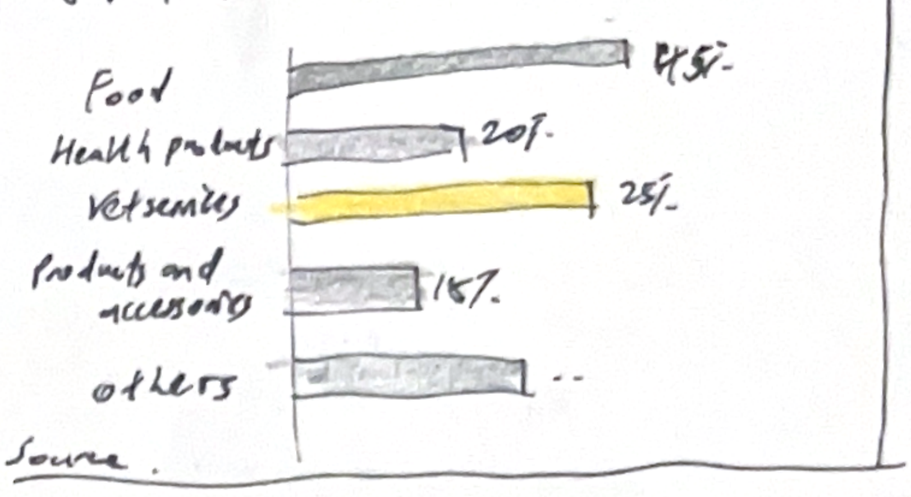

Blue
73 in 100 households have a pet

Grey
No pet.

Source citation.

chart #2 = Bar chart

Vet Care is a small slice of pet spending

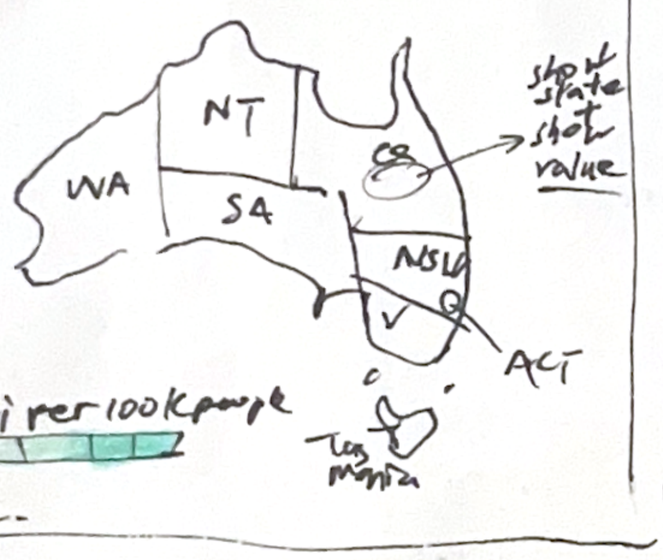

Source.

Section 2 = Who looks after them

chart #3 choropleth map

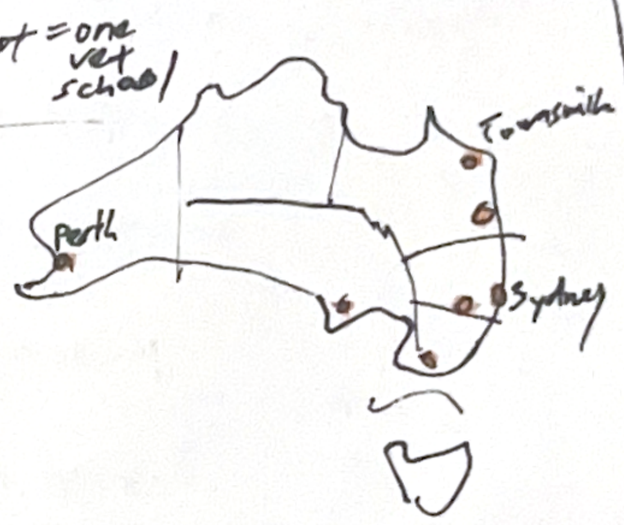

Vet business with staff per 100k people

Source.

chart #4 Dot map

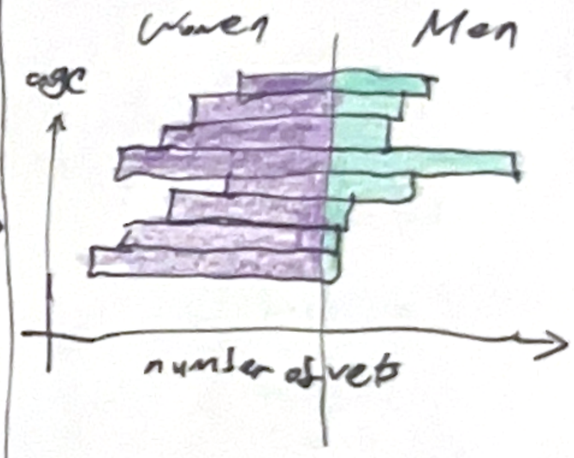

Seven universities train Australia's vets

Source.

chart #5 population pyramid.

Vets by age and gender.

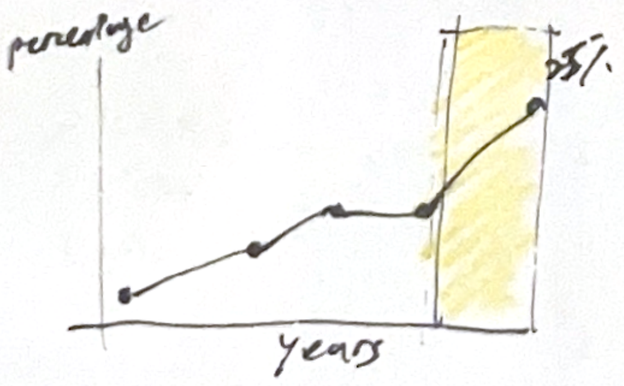

Source.

Section 3 = A profession stretched thin. (out of vets)

chart #6 - line chart

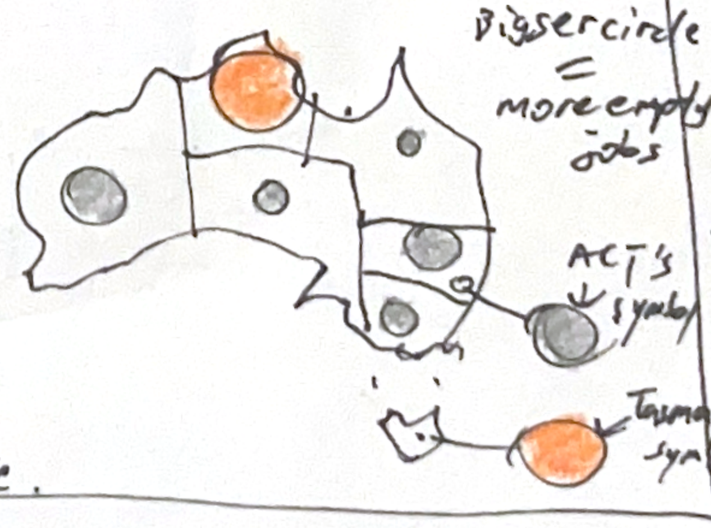

More vets work with big company chains

Source.

chart #7 Proportional Symbol map.

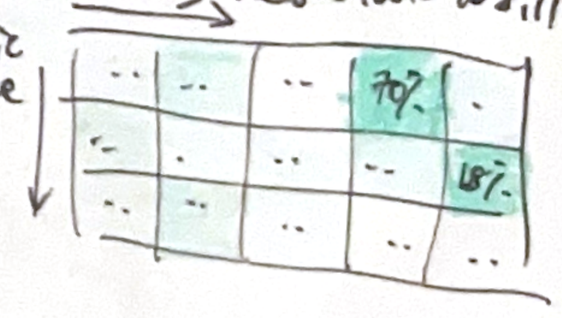

Vet jobs still unfilled after a year.

Source.

chart #8 heat map

Small practices wait longer to fill a job.

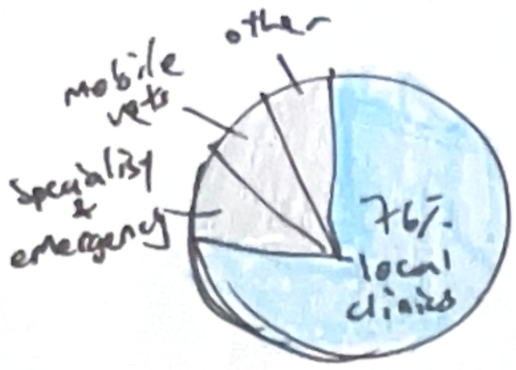

Source

Siau Chong - 32002806

Section 4 = where pets get care, and what for.

chart #9 pie chart

where pets get care

source.

→

chart #10 Bar chart (dogs/cats)

10 most common reasons pets see vets

Avg cost per pet in a year

Most common

$123

$200

$400

source

switch: dogs cats.

chart #11 dumbbell chart (dogs/cats)

The emergencies that cost the most.

Avg bill

highest bill

Hip surgery

Lymphoma

Twisted

source.

switch: dogs cats

→

chart #12 line chart

The cost of treating gastro (dogs vs cats)

cost

dogs

cats

years

Section 5 = caring for pets when money is tight.

chart #13 pictogram

what owners cut back on their vet care

Bought pet food

cut back on vet care

Dogs

Cats

source

→

clart #14 Bar chart

energency cost vs prevention cost

prevention $122 a year

emergency $3843 for one illness

source.

↙

chart #15 Streamgraph

Animals entering RSPCA shelters, 2005-06 to 2024-25

Dogs

cats

other

source.

→ maybe three small multiples for dogs, cats, and others.

---

section 6 What it all means (conclusion)

Pets are family → Vets are stretched thin → Prevention is needed } text blocks.

Footer About this page.

Data Sources + Author + AI acknowledgements.